Joliet Comprehensive Plan - Plan BrandingTMP-8409

Planner Jayne Bernhard introduced Muse consultants, Katrina Balog and Meredith Felt, to the Committee members. Ms. Bernhard introduced Lamar Johnson Collaborative consultants, Lesley Roth and Prayag Bagde, who appeared via Microsoft Teams. Ms. Balog and Ms. Felt provided an overview of four Comprehensive Plan branding concepts, including 1A, 1B, 2, and 3. A robust discussion was held among the Committee members about the four branding concepts.

Existing Conditions Report - OutlineTMP-8408

Ms. Roth provided an overview of the Existing Conditions Report and inquired about the Committee's interests and priorities for the Existing Conditions Report topics. There was discussion regarding housing diversity, housing availability, vertical housing, affordable housing, ownership based housing, and attainable housing. Committee members discussed retention of young adults, transportation, job opportunities, and accessible paths. There was discussion about economic development, community development, land use, zoning, infrastructure, and redevelopment opportunities throughout Joliet. Committee members and Ms. Roth highlighted speaking with the Joliet Community about the Comprehensive Plan process and bringing feedback to the Comprehensive Plan Advisory Committee discussions.

Ms. Roth provided an overview of the Existing Conditions Report outline.

Ms. Roth responded to Mayor Terry D'Arcy's inquiry about the relationship between the Existing Conditions Report and the Urban 3 Economic Analysis. Mayor D'Arcy highlighted the economic valuation of parcels and infrastructure as components of the Urban 3 Economic Analysis.

Ms. Roth discussed in greater detail Chapter 3 titled Past/Ongoing Plans and Reports of the Existing Conditions Report.

STAFF REPORTS

Ms. Bernhard explained that a Comprehensive Plan Advisory Committee Special Meeting would take place on April 23 to confirm project branding and described an Equitable Transit Oriented Development open house that would take place on May 14 at Gateway Transportation Center.

MEMBER COMMENTS

There was a comment about a vertical housing development near Fox Valley Mall and similar vertical housing opportunities in Joliet.

Mayor D'Arcy and Jim Roolf highlighted the importance of Community feedback and the generation of ideas relating to the Comprehensive Plan.

Comments were made regarding new development and redevelopment areas within Joliet, including partnering with African American churches to develop east of the Des Plaines River, residential housing at the Country Club location, sites listed in the Equitable Transit-Oriented Development plan, U.S. Steel property, and near Interstate 80.

Mayor D'Arcy thanked Ms. Roth and her team.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Katy Garthus spoke about development.
