Public Hearing: COA-4-2024: Certificate of Appropriateness for replacement doors at 19 W. Cass Street (former Ottawa Street Methodist Church / Joliet Area Historical Museum)

TMP-8052

Attachments: COA-04-2024 \(19 W. Cass Street\) Staff Report Packet

A motion was made by Ms. Merwin, seconded by Mr. Adamowski to open the public hearing. All Commission members were in favor.

Planner Jayne Bernhard read the staff report into the record.

Applicant Steven Wright appeared on behalf of the petition and provided an overview of the replacement doors project.

Ms. Merwin inquired about the center panel. Mr. Wright explained the interior handle could be covered by a matching piece of metal. Ms. Bernhard discussed staff's recommendation to not include the center panel. In response to Ms. Merwin's question about safety or structural concerns, Mr. Wright explained the center panel was a preference.

In response to Ms. Johnson's questions, Mr. Wright explained all other doors had a center panel.

Mr. Wright and Ms. Bernhard responded to Mr. Heinemann's questions about the difference in cost and a two-glass panel door.

In response to Mr. Heinemann's inquiry if one option was more secure, Mr. Wright explained it was a preference.

Ms. Johnson stated no witnesses were present to object or speak in favor of the petition.

A motion was made by Ms. Merwin, seconded by Ms. Stovall to close the public hearing. All Commission members were in favor.

At the request of Mr. Heinemann, Ms. Bernhard explained having only glass was historically more appropriate. There was a discussion to clarify that the current doors did not have a metal bar.

No further discussion was held on the motion.

A motion was made by Sharon Merwin, seconded by Kevin Heinemann, to approve Public Hearing: COA-4-2024: Certificate of Appropriateness for replacement doors at 19 W. Cass Street (former Ottawa Street Methodist Church / Joliet Area Historical Museum). The motion carried by the following vote:

Aye: Heinemann, Johnson, Merwin, Stovall and Spiegel

Absent: Gannon

Abstain: Adamowski, Lowry and Wright

STAFF REPORTS

Ms. Bernhard explained the Comprehensive Plan would include evaluation of preservation and public kick off would occur early to mid-spring.

Ms. Bernhard discussed the close out of the Downtown Joliet National Register Historic District and Historic Resource Survey Project.

Ms. Bernhard gave an overview of the Economic Development Division's RFP to establish the Joliet River Edge Redevelopment Zone Program.

Ms. Bernhard discussed the holiday cards that all designated historic properties received.

Ms. Bernhard provided an update on the Joliet Area African American Historic Context Study and informed the Commission that the City applied for a grant to fund oral history development.

At the request of Ms. Johnson, Ms. Bernhard provided an update on St. Joe's Church landmark nomination.

COMMISSIONER COMMENTS

Ms. Merwin distributed Herald News calendars. There was a discussion about the calendar photos.

Ms. Johnson mentioned the City's website had 2023 Historic Preservation Committee meeting dates and the landmark application linked to the dates rather than the application.

Ms. Merwin discussed the creation of a Historic Preservation Commission handout for Will County Forest Preserve District facilities.

Ms. Bernhard confirmed 2025 meeting dates were the fourth Wednesday of every month at 6:00 p.m. with the exception of November and December meetings, which would occur on the third Wednesday.

Memo

File #: TMP-8154

Agenda Date: 1/22/2025

STAFF REPORT

DATE: January 14, 2025
TO: Joliet Historic Preservation Commission
FROM: Jayne M. Bernhard, Secretary to the Joliet Historic Preservation Commission
SUBJECT: Preliminary Review of Request to Rescind Local Historic District designation from the Whitney Terrace Subdivision (412, 414, 416, 418, 420, and 422 Whitney Avenue and its associated common area)

OVERVIEW

Residents of the Whitney Terrace subdivision submitted an application to rescind designation of their six-lot subdivision – 412, 414, 416, 418, 420, and 422 Whitney Terrace – as a local historic district. The purpose of this preliminary review is to understand the applicants’ request and to identify any additional information that the applicant or staff could reasonably produce for further Historic Preservation Commission review at a future public hearing.

BACKGROUND AND CONTEXT

The Whitney Terrace Local Historic District was designated a Local Historic District by the City Council on July 18, 2006. Whitney Terrace Local Historic District consists of six unique Tudor residences surrounding a landscaped common area that were built between 1923 and 1929. The enclave is the only one of its kind known in Joliet. Although modern subdivisions have common areas owned jointly by all homeowners, they are invariably built well outside the developed core of a city, and their houses are usually limited to two or three designs. This local district is also located within the boundaries of the Upper Bluff National Register Historic District.

Whitney Terrace was designed by local architect Levon Seron. Levon Seron, born in Chicago to Armenian-Turkish parents, likely gained interest in architecture from his father, a draftsman and mechanical engineer for the U.S. Steel Company. Raised in Joliet, Seron attended MIT and opened his own architecture practice in Joliet. He also worked as a real estate broker. The six houses on Whitney Terrace are some of his earliest designs. He also acted as the Associate Architect to Skidmore, Owings, and Merrill for the 1957 design of Gompers Junior High School in Joliet. Seron died in 1975.

DISCUSSION

All six property owners within the six-lot Whitney Terrace Local Historic District desire to rescind local historic district designation status for their properties. Owner consent forms for all six property owners are attached. Their application for rescinding designation status states that they feel that local historic district designation “costs too much” to uphold and is too restrictive. The application also states that there were false promises made as to financial benefits that would be afforded to properties that chose to place preservation restrictions on their homes. Staff offered to meet with Whitney Terrace residents to listen to and discuss any concerns regarding designation. The residents decided to not meet with staff regarding the matter.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

In addition to other information requested by the Commission at its preliminary review, staff makes the following recommendations:

- That the Commission shall schedule the petition for a public hearing at its next regular meeting, which is currently scheduled for Wednesday February 26, 2025.

Historical Summary:

The house is significant for its architecture. Herbert Lisle Cramer was born in Baraboo, Wisconsin, on October 16, 1894. He and his wife Mary and two children – Herbert L., Jr., and Mary Jane. Herbert worked as an insurance agent for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. He also served as the football coach at Joliet Township High School in 1923. The family lived at 418 Whitney Terrace for only a few years and were living in South Bend, Indiana, by 1931. Levon Seron, born in Chicago to Armenian-Turkish parents, likely gained interest in architecture from his father, a draftsman and mechanical engineer for the U.S. Steel Company. Raised in Joliet, Seron attended MIT and opened his own architecture practice in Joliet. He also worked as a real estate broker. The six houses on Whitney Terrace are some of his earliest designs. He also acted as the Associate Architect to Skidmore, Owings, and Merrill for the 1957 design of Gompers Junior High School in Joliet. Seron died in 1975.

Historical Summary:

The house is significant for its architecture. John Henry Barnes was born in Joliet on September 19, 1867. According to the Upper Bluff Historic District National Register nomination, Barnes trained at the University of Illinois, where he studied under Nathan Ricker, who was influenced by the work of H. H. Richardson. Before opening his own practice in Joliet, Barnes worked in Denver and Iowa. In Joliet he was associated with the design of school buildings. Although none of these school buildings remain, he designed the Lockport Central Square school (1896) and Farragut School (1899) in Joliet. He also designed the Richards Street Methodist Church in Joliet, the Sebastian Lager House (429 Buell, 1890), and the house at 309 Woodworth (1893). He also designed the Cutting Building in Joliet, built in 1900. In 1914 Barnes ceased practicing architecture and worked as a retail automobile dealer, opening the Joliet Motor Company. Barnes married Ida Mabel Zarley in Joliet on December 24, 1890, and the couple had two children – Helen and Harold J. The family lived in the house at 420 Whitney Terrace until 1940 when they moved to Santa Barbara, California. John died in Santa Barbara on July 22, 1945. Ida...

Whitney Terrace Local Historic District Guidelines

The owners/residents of Whitney Terrace have adopted the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation as the basis for the guidelines for the local historic district. These standards, numbered 1 to 10, are repeated below. In addition, the owners/residents have added the guidelines numbered 11 through 14 below to apply to their district.

The Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation

The following Standards are to be applied to specific rehabilitation projects in a reasonable manner, taking into consideration economic and technical feasibility.

1. A property shall be used for its historic purpose or be placed in a new use that requires minimal change to the defining characteristics of the building and its site and environment.
2. The historic character of a property shall be retained and preserved. The removal of historic materials or alteration of features and spaces that characterize a property shall be avoided.
3. Each property shall be recognized as a physical record of its time, place, and use. Changes that create a false sense of historical development, such as adding conjectural features or architectural elements from other buildings, shall not be undertaken.
4. Most properties change over time; those changes that have acquired historic significance in their own right shall be retained and preserved.
5. Distinctive features, finishes, and construction techniques or examples of craftsmanship that characterize a historic property shall be preserved.
6. Deteriorated historic features shall be repaired rather than replaced. Where the severity of deterioration requires replacement of a distinctive feature, the new feature shall match the old in design, color, texture, and other visual qualities and, where possible, materials. Replacement of missing features shall be substantiated by documentary, physical, or pictorial evidence.
7. Chemical or physical treatments, such as sandblasting, that cause damage to historic materials shall not be used. The surface cleaning of structures, if appropriate, shall be undertaken using the gentlest means possible.
8. Significant archeological resources affected by a project shall be protected and preserved. If such resources must be disturbed, mitigation measures shall be undertaken.

9. New additions, exterior alterations, or related new construction shall not destroy historic materials that characterize the property. The new work shall be differentiated from the old and shall be compatible with the massing, size, scale, and architectural features to protect the historic integrity of the property and its environment.

10. New additions and adjacent or related new construction shall be undertaken in such a manner that if removed in the future, the essential form and integrity of the historic property and its environment would be unimpaired.

Additional Guidelines added by the owners/residents of the Whitney Terrace Local Historic District:

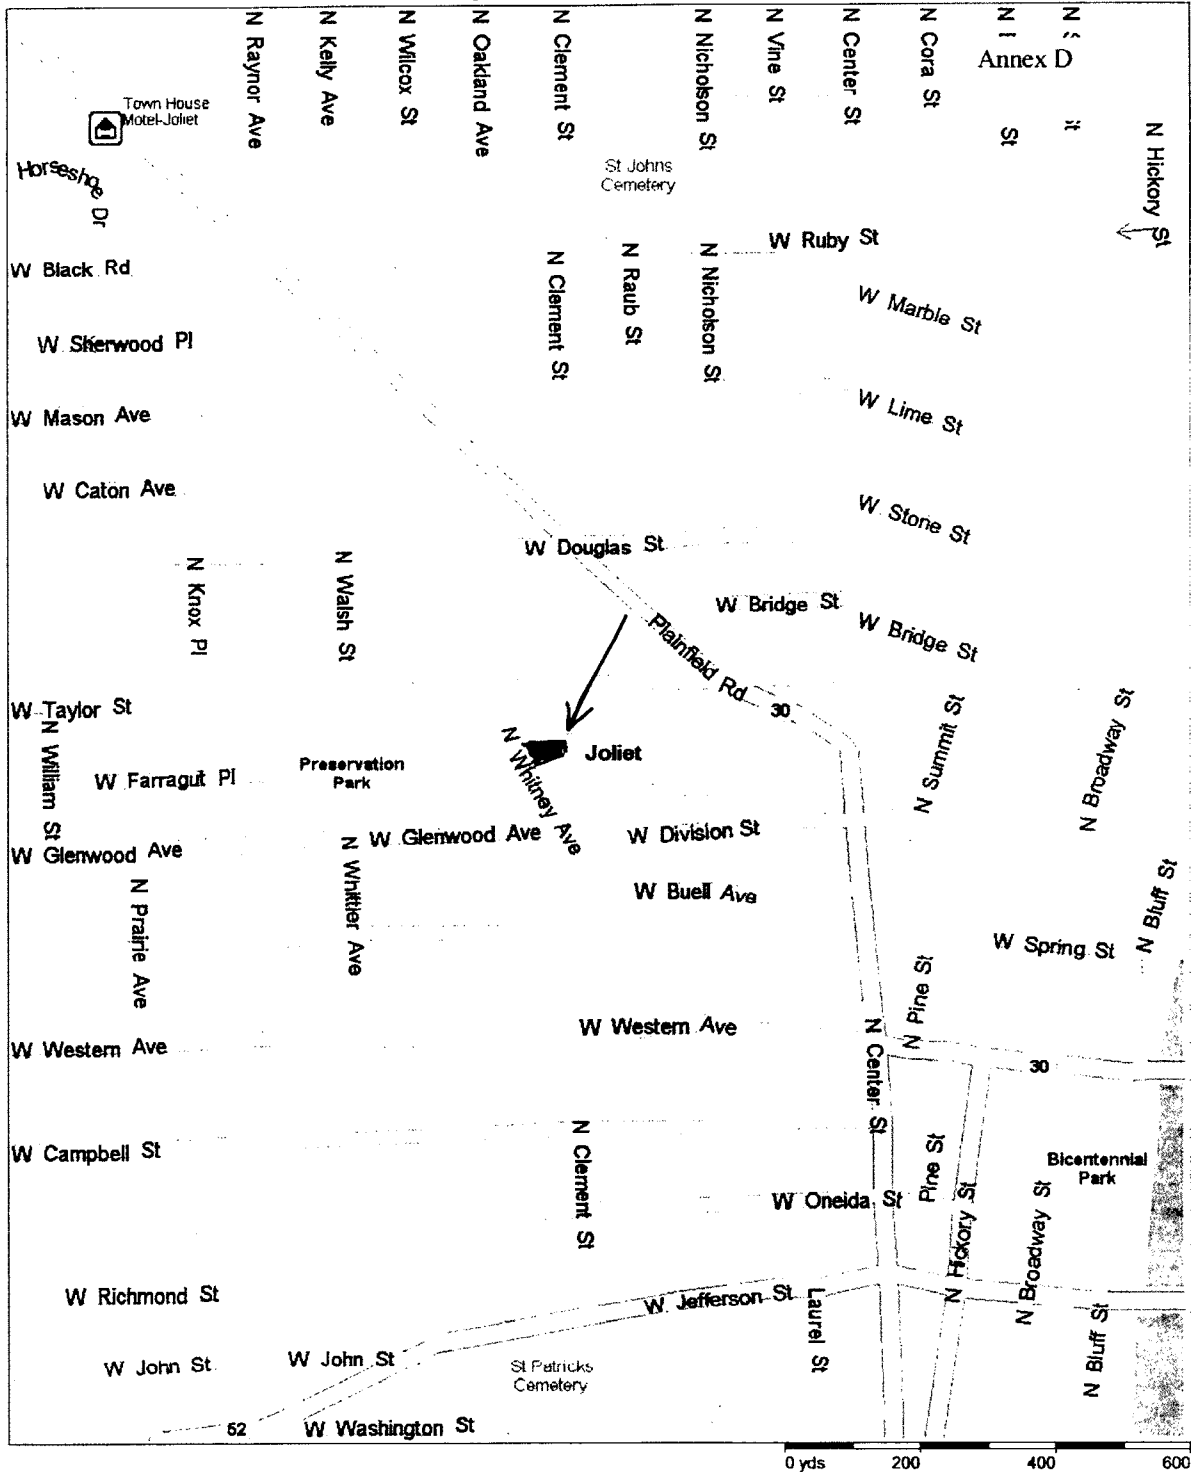

11. Exterior paint colors for main body, trim and accent colors shall be selected from a palette of colors agreed upon by the owners and filed with the Joliet Historic Preservation Commission. The palette may be modified by a two-thirds majority vote by the owners/residents.

12. There shall be no fences erected by individual property owners that extend beyond the front façades of the houses as they face the common courtyard. Wrought iron fencing between individual properties up to the front façade may be considered for issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness by the Joliet HPC, if a two-thirds majority of the owners/residents concurs.

13. A wrought iron fence along Whitney Avenue, restricting access by the public to the common courtyard, may be considered for issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness by the Joliet HPC, if a two-thirds majority of the owners/residents concurs.

14. Any fencing considered by owners/residents along the alley faces of the properties would not be controlled by these guidelines or in any other way by the Historic Preservation Commission. Other City of Joliet ordinances and regulations may, however, affect such fencing and must be addressed during application for and approval of a building permit.

SUBJECT: Historic Preservation Commission Ordinance
Recommending Designation of Whitney Terrace as a
Local Historic District (412-422 Whitney)

BACKGROUND:

The following home owners are requesting that their properties be approved as a local historic district to be known as Whitney Terrace:

Gabrielle & Jose Vital—412 Whitney
Randal & Kelly Bailey—414 Whitney
Kenneth & Mary Ellen Spiegel—416 Whitney
Gary & Judith Bebar—418 Whitney
Eileen & Brian McKee—420 Whitney
Arthur & Michelle Wilhelmi—422 Whitney

The properties are being nominated due to architectural and historical significance. The subject site consists of six Tudor residences designed by Joliet architect Sirhan Seran between 1923 and 1929. The six residences represent an excellent cross-section of Tudor-style houses in Joliet as noted below:

412 Whitney: The property consists of a 1 ½ story, limestone and stucco, Tudor-style cottage built in 1923-24. The property is known as the Raymond J. Lennon House.

414 Whitney: The property consists of a 2-story, brick and stucco, Tudor cottage built in 1923-24. The property is known as the William F. Barrett House.

416 Whitney: The property consists of a 1 ½ story stone Tudor cottage built in 1924. The property is known as the George W. Wiswell House.

418 Whitney: The property consists of a 2 story stucco and stone Tudor cottage built in 1925-26. The property is known as the Herbert L. Cramer House.

420 Whitney: The property consists of a 1 ½ story brick and stucco Tudor cottage built in 1928-29. The property is known as the John H. Barnes House.

422 Whitney: The property is a 1 ½ story, limestone and stucco Tudor cottage built in 1928-29. The property is known as the Frank J. Turk House.

The six residences listed above are positioned surrounding a landscaped common area an enclave unique in Joliet. The common area is jointly owned by all six homeowners.

PUBLIC HEARING:

The Commission reviewed the proposed local district at 412-422 Whitney at their hearing held June 28, 2006. No one spoke in opposition to the petition.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION:

Mr. Magosky moved to approve the nomination and to send the proposed local district to City Council public hearing. Ms. Hohisel seconded the motion which was unanimously approved with Commissioner's Skaggs, Daniels, Merwin, Carlson, Hohisel, Nachtrieb, Horne and Magosky voting aye.

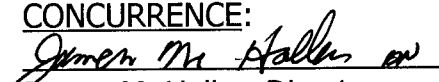

RECOMMENDATION OF THE ADMINISTRATION:

The Administration concurs with the Joliet Historic Preservation Commission and recommends that the Mayor and City Council approve the attached ordinance authorizing the designation of 412, 414, 416, 418, 420 and 422 Whitney as the Whitney Terrace Local Historic District.

Respectfully submitted,
